If you've been looking for a place with space, personality, and just enough they don't build 'em like this anymore go ahead and pull in the driveway. Set on just shy of an acre, this 1,972 sq ft home offers the kind of room that's getting harder to find mature shade trees, a wide-open yard, and a corner lot that gives you that extra breathing space. It's easy to picture weekend gatherings, a crawfish boil, or simply enjoying a slower pace of life right at home. Step inside and you'll find a kitchen that's seen a lot of good cooking and even better conversations. Solid wood cabinets everywhere you turn, plenty of counter space, and a layout that just works. It's got that vintage charm you just can't recreate but if you've got a vision, it'll meet you halfway. The living area flows comfortably, centered around a classic brick fireplace that invites you to sit down and stay awhile perfect for quiet evenings or time spent with family and friends. Unlike the newer homes, the three bedrooms are generously sized. And here's something that truly matters no flood insurance required. Around here, that's more than a bonus it's peace of mind. Outside, the property really stretches its legs. There's room for gatherings, hobbies, a garden, or simply enjoying the open space and quiet surroundings. It's comfortable, it's inviting, and it just feels like home. This one isn't trying to be like
