Positioned for strong visibility and steady traffic, this RV park sits just off a major interstate, offering exceptional accessibility for travelers and long-term guests alike. Spanning approximately 30 acres, the property features 76 spacious pads with a mix of concrete and gravel surfaces, each equipped with full hookups including water, sewer, and both 30- and 50-amp electric service. The park is supported by a fully functional office and restroom facilities, providing a solid operational foundation for immediate income. With ample room for expansion or added amenities, this property presents an outstanding investment opportunity in a high-demand travel corridor.
