Welcome to 6555 Landmor Dr, a classic Bellingrath Hills home featuring thoughtful updates and renovations throughout including a NEW ROOF and HVAC! This 4 bed/2 bath home sits on over half an acre and includes a shop, offering both space and functionality. As you arrive, you'll notice the covered front porch, mature trees, and a long driveway providing ample parking. Inside, the home opens to a foyer and two distinct living areas, creating flexible and functional living space. To the right of the entry is a versatile front room, ideal as a sitting area or formal dining space, which flows into the main living room. This space is full of character, featuring updated LVP flooring, a true brick fireplace with a cypress mantel, a wood-paneled ceiling, and custom bay windows that fill the room with natural light! Moving toward the kitchen, you'll find a generously sized dining area with vaulted ceilings and an exposed wood beam, adding warmth and architectural interest! Just beyond is a second living room with brand-new windows overlooking the spacious backyard and surrounding trees, making it a perfect secondary gathering space or family room.
