This property has endless opportunities. If you are a Real Estate Developer, you can make this a great residential subdivision behind one of Denham's oldest subdivisions. If you would like a large piece of property in the middle of Denham this is the place for you. The homestead that was on this property did not flood in the 2016 flood. The front of the property on the road frontage is high and dry. There are places in the back of the property that is in a lower elevation and there is a creek that goes thru part of the property. This property has been owned by one family and very much loved thru the years. Make your appointment today!
