3 Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | 2,597 Sqft

This custom-built three-bedroom, two-bath home is ideally located in the very heart of town, offering both elegance and exceptional convenience just minutes from the interstates, the Mall of Louisiana, Town Center, Perkins Rowe, the restaurant district, and more. Designed to live large, the home features an expansive layout where the living room, dining room, and family room flow seamlessly together, complemented by a large primary suite that creates a truly refined living experience. Abundant windows fill the home with natural light, highlighting its open yet character-rich design. The kitchen includes a granite island, generous storage, and connects to a large pantry and laundry area, while additional features such as two water heaters, surround sound, an oversized garage, and two attic staircases leading to a floored attic provide both comfort and practicality. The home is also equipped with a full house generator, adding convenience and peace of mind. Landscaping with a sprinkler system enhances the setting, and the home offers an impressive amount of storage throughout, making this a beautifully maintained and thoughtfully designed property that combines charm, functionality, and an unbeatable location.
