This spacious home offers a unique combination of comfort, security, and premium upgrades, making it the perfect place to settle in. With ample living space and thoughtful design, this home includes Centermatch walls throughout, providing both charm and durability. After Hurricane Ida, the property received a new roof, ensuring peace of mind and protection for years to come. The home is equipped with three AC units for year-round comfort, and a 75K diesel generator ensures you'll never be left in the dark during power outages. For added storm protection, storm shutters are installed on select windows. The chef-inspired kitchen features a Sub-Zero fridge, double oven, and a trash compactor, offering both convenience and style. With two new hot water heaters, you'll enjoy an endless supply of hot water. The home is located in Flood Zone X, offering peace of mind in flood-prone areas. For cozy evenings, there's a wood-burning fireplace perfect for family gatherings. Structural integrity is top-notch, with a solid steel beam in the attic, ensuring durability and long-lasting value. Additionally, an outside camera system provides added security and peace of mind. With ample square footage and a layout designed for both functionality and luxury, this property offers an ideal blend of safety and comfort for any family. Schedule a viewing today to
