This beautiful 76+/- acre property, spanning both Tangipahoa Parish and St. Helena Parish, offers a peaceful blend of natural charm and versatility. The land features gently rolling terrain, creating a scenic landscape that feels both open and private. Much of the acreage is planted in pines, providing a classic Southern backdrop, while pockets of mature hardwoods add character, shade, and ecological diversity. Whether you're looking to establish a quiet weekend retreat, build a private home estate, or invest in recreational land, this property provides the ideal setting. Its mix of timber, topography, and seclusion creates a tranquil environment perfect for enjoying the outdoors, while still offering ample space for future development or customization. This is a rare opportunity to own a sizable tract of land with natural beauty only minutes from town. Call for your showing today.
