Old Goodwood charm meets modern comfort on this beautifully remodeled 3BR/2BA classic with a dedicated office, sitting on nearly half an acre in one of Baton Rouge's most sought-after established neighborhoods. Professionally renovated in 2016, this home showcases rich hardwood floors throughout, a gas log fireplace in the main living area, and a well-appointed kitchen featuring white marble countertops, classic tile backsplash, and stainless steel appliances. A generous laundry room with space for a deep freezer adds everyday convenience. Both bathrooms have been tastefully updated with modern fixtures and tile surrounds. The private home office is thoughtfully positioned for quiet, productive work-from-home use. Outside, a charming butterfly garden greets guests at the covered front porch. Mature trees and a fully fenced lot offer privacy and ample outdoor space. The attached workshop is ideal for hobbies, projects, or additional storage. A Generac standby generator provides reliable peace of mind through every storm season. Walk to Our Lady of Mercy. Minutes from premier shopping, dining, and the best of Baton Rouge. Timeless architecture, quality finishes, and a neighborhood that simply cannot be replicated. This is Old Goodwood at its best. Come see this one today!
