Step into this exceptional one-of-a-kind 4-level custom home in desirable Raceland, Louisiana, in the highly rated Lockport School District. Offering a prime central location south of New Orleans, it provides easy access to all that South Louisiana has to offer. Just minutes from fishing, boating, and outdoor adventures at Lake Fields, Grand Isle, and Port Fourchon. Set on over half an acre on a peaceful street backing to open fields, this home delivers privacy, natural beauty, and quality craftsmanship throughout. Breathtaking woodwork includes gorgeous Cypress floors with rich inlaid knots in the bedrooms and baths, striking redwood ceilings, elegant oak wainscoting, and handcrafted Cypress banisters. A custom library room with built-in bookshelves can serve as a reading nook, home office, or fifth bedroom. The open living room features a stunning wood-burning fireplace with quartz surround. The gourmet kitchen boasts a spacious pantry, farmhouse sink, gas stove, and double refrigerator/freezer. Every bedroom offers generous walk-in closets. The primary bath has double sinks, and one bedroom is uniquely designed as a professional music studio with vocal booth perfect for musicians or content creators. Stylish stained concrete floors grace the living, dining, kitchen, laundry, and garage areas for a modern, low-maintenance feel. Recessed LED
