There is a moment, just past the Parish line, where the frantic energy of Baton Rouge dissolves into a landscape of ancient oaks and rolling, verdant hills. It is here, nestled within the storied peace of Saint Francisville, that 10108 Longleaf Lane offers a life of elevated repose. This residence is a masterclass in the soft life, a sanctuary where high-end design meets the soulful quiet of country living. From the custom-finished porches to the soaring, light-drenched interiors, every detail has been curated for a life of intentionality. The kitchen is a culinary gallery, anchored by solid-wood, soft-close cabinetry and a professional-grade suite featuring Fisher & Paykel and Frigidaire Professional Series appliances. It is a space designed for the slow Sunday brunch or the quiet morning coffee, where the sunlight hits the marble expanses just right. As evening settles over the treelined backyard, the home's sensory architecture takes center stage. A hardwired Sonos GEN 2 system allows your personal soundtrack to drift seamlessly from the fireside living room to the expansive back terrace. Here, the outdoor kitchen, complete with Blackstone and Blaze premium elements, overlooks a pool that serves as a private oasis of stillness. It is the ultimate setting for a quiet evening glass of wine, with the sound of the water feature settling against a backdrop of
