Situated on 2.66 acres, this income-producing RV park offers 4 established RV hookups currently ready for use, with ample room to expand and add additional sites for increased revenue potential. The property provides a great opportunity for investors or entrepreneurs looking to grow a campground or short-term rental business. With easy access, open space, and expansion possibilities, this versatile property could also serve as an ideal homesite for a private residence while still generating income potential. Whether you're looking to continue operating as-is, expand the RV park, or build your dream home, the possibilities are endless with this unique investment opportunity.
