Located at The Bluffs, this custom home is set on nearly half an acre overlooking the former Arnold Palmer designed golf course. A refreshing swimming pool, vaulted ceilings, two fireplaces, six original stained glass windows, expansive gallery, and rich wood floors set this home apart. The kitchen features old cypress cabinetry, granite counters, an island with breakfast bar, large pantry, and gas (propane) cooktop. The adjacent dining area features two-story ceilings and a wall of windows with a view of the private courtyard and pool area. The living room with fireplace and large media center has a feature stairway at one corner. The ground-floor primary suite is its own private retreat: French doors open to a walk-out courtyard & in-ground pool, while inside a large walk-in closet, en suite bathroom with jetted tub, separate double-shower with glass brick surround, and dual-sink vanity create everyday luxury. Upstairs: a vaulted sunroom/gallery with fireplace, wet bar, and exit to the upstairs porch, a perfect spot for lunch among the tree tops. One guest bedroom next to the guest bath, shower only. And a spacious office/study with built-in bookcases and desk, easily converted to a third bedroom, plus access to the attic with flooring for extra storage space. Outdoor living shines here with two porches, a spiral staircase between the two,
