Positioned in one of Houma's high-visibility, heavily traveled corridors, this prime commercial opportunity at 6875 & 6881 W. Main offers exceptional exposure with endless potential. Consisting of two corner lots combined, this C2 commercially zoned property sits bayouside near the bridge crossing into West Park and across Bayou Terrebonne from a highly recognized parade route, creating incredible traffic flow and year-round visibility for your business. Conveniently located just moments from the Hollywood Road intersection, the location lends itself to a variety of commercial uses including retail, food service, office space, seasonal pop-up concepts, vendor setups, and more. Power is already run to the property, helping jumpstart future development or temporary business operations. The owner is open to both short-term and long-term lease opportunities, while ultimately offering the property for sale to those ready to establish a lasting footprint in a thriving commercial area. Whether you are looking to launch, expand, invest, or create a unique income-producing setup, this location offers the exposure, accessibility, and flexibility to make your vision a reality.
