A perfect blend of rustic comfort and country living! This charming home is nestled beneath mature trees on a little more than an acre and a half. Featuring warm wood interiors, exposed beam ceilings and a wood burning fireplace. A large primary suite, with plenty of room to unwind, includes a walk-in closet. Speaking of relaxation, whether you're starting your day or ending it--the spacious screened porch was made for peaceful mornings or restful evenings. Alongside the main home, you'll find a cozy guest house offering just under 400 square feet of studio-style living space. Currently tenant-occupied, this additional dwelling is not included in the listed living square footage. Full of character and tucked away - this property is a must see! From a family home to a weekend retreat, the possibilities are endless.
