This well-maintained brick home, built with the charm and craftsmanship of an earlier era, offers timeless character and a peaceful country-style setting. Situated on over half an acre, the property features a beautifully cared-for yard that adds to the home's warm rural feel and inviting atmosphere. Inside, the home is move-in ready and has been lovingly maintained over the years. This property presents an excellent opportunity to own a solid home with space, charm, and the kind of character older homes are known for. A/C replaced in May 2026. If you are looking for a quiet, country-like feel with room to make it your own, this home is waiting for the perfect buyer. Contact me for a private showing.
