Beloved family home in the heart of Kenilworth! That offers a front row to the Kenilworth Club's beloved Fourth of July parade. This thoughtfully designed home offers a rare traditional layout with both a formal dining room and separate breakfast area perfect for everyday living and entertaining. A spacious playroom addition has been a true game-changer, complete with abundant storage space. Outdoors, enjoy the best of both worlds with a large concrete play area and a grassy backyard for endless fun and a gated driveway. Located on the St. Jude bus route with the bus stop just steps from the front door. Additional highlights include a large office, a double workshop that can be converted into a primary suite or in-law apartment, and brand-new Pergo Pro flooring throughout the home.
