The possibilities are endless with this ~0.28-acre lot located in the heart of Raceland. Offering a rare combination of privacy and convenience, this property is tucked away enough to provide a peaceful setting while remaining close to local amenities. Electricity is already available with a power pole on-site, and sewer service is accessible, making it easier to bring your vision to life. An existing shipping container will remain with the property and may provide valuable storage or utility space. (Tractor not included.) Buyer to verify all measurements, zoning, flood zone designation, utility availability, and any other information deemed important to the purchase. Property is being sold as-is, and the seller will make no repairs or improvements.
