Step into a piece of history with this beautiful brick church property full of character, charm, and opportunity. Nestled on over 2 acres, the main sanctuary comfortably seats over 100 attendees and features stunning stained-glass windows, a welcoming worship space, updated audiovisual equipment, and a beautifully appointed pulpit area ready for services from day one. Beyond the sanctuary, the property includes a separate auxiliary building ideal for children's ministry, fellowship gatherings, classrooms, community events, office space, or special functions. The expansive grounds provide ample room for parking, outdoor activities, future expansion, or additional development opportunities. This property is truly move-in ready, with existing audio/visual equipment, sound systems, monitors, cameras, and ministry equipment included in the sale, allowing a congregation or organization to begin operations immediately. Whether you're looking to establish a new congregation, expand an existing ministry, create a community center, or invest in a unique property with historical significance, this exceptional offering provides endless possibilities.
