The backyard is peaceful, with a lovely view of the tree line and waterfront in the distance. It feels private, very calm, and scenic. Since the sun sets in the front yard, the back patio stays shady in the evenings, making it a great spot to relax. There is a fenced garden where you can grow your favorite plants. Right now, there are bell peppers, tomatoes, and cucumbers. The house has a split floor plan for privacy. When you walk in, three bedrooms and the hall bath are on the left, while the primary suite, laundry room, and garage are on the right. The open layout features a wall of windows overlooking the backyard, offering great views of nature. The kitchen has plenty of counter space, cabinets, and a pantry. The refrigerator can be included if needed. There is an extra-wide driveway and an oversized garage! This home has never flooded, and flood insurance is not required. The location is convenient, just down the road from Juban Road and the Juban Crossing shopping area.
