Welcome to 18249 Shadow Creek Avenue in the highly sought-after Shadows at White Oak. This beautifully maintained residence offers a spacious triple split floor plan enhanced by soaring ceilings, abundant natural light, and thoughtfully designed living spaces. The primary suite provides a private retreat featuring dual vanities, dual walk-in closets with custom shelving, a soaking tub, and a separate shower. A separate bedroom and full bath located near the kitchen offer flexible use as guest accommodations, a study, or additional workspace, while two additional bedrooms are connected by a convenient Jack-and-Jill bath. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the kitchen features updated smart appliances, a gas range, generous counter space, and a large walk-in pantry. The adjoining wet bar and formal dining area create an inviting setting for hosting gatherings of any size. Outdoor living takes center stage with a screened porch overlooking a sparkling inground Gunite pool, providing a private setting to relax and enjoy Louisiana's year-round outdoor lifestyle. Recent updates include full exterior paint (2024), custom closet systems and shelving throughout (2024), a whole-house generator (2024), full interior paint (2026), hardwood laminate flooring in the primary bedroom (2025), a new pool filter (2025), and refreshed finishes
