Over 2 acres? With a pond? Fully renovated? Yes, yes, and yes. Welcome to Greenmeadow where, yes, the grass is greener. In the heart of Central, you'll love pulling up to this curb appeal that's tucked back enough to give you some privacy and the feel of country living. A cozy front porch that invites you right on in. Your living room has vaulted ceilings, shiplap walls, and a gas fireplace complete with built ins. It's an open concept to your dream kitchen which looks like it's straight from Pinterest. A large island, ample storage/counter space, a spacious pantry, and top notch appliances. It also flows into your formal dining loaded with natural light. Off the kitchen is your laundry complete with a sink and tons of space and storage. Your primary bedroom has a nice accent wall and a door leading to your back porch. Your primary bath has two sinks and an ideal sized closet. Your additional bedrooms are down the hall each with ample space and storage. Out the back door is your oasis with a new covered patio overlooking your backyard pond and treehouse. You'll never run out of storage with the two car garage and separate workshop. Your roof is less than a year old and the backyard is newly fenced in. Come get a little more elbow room and privacy but still be close to all you need in the city.
