Tucked into the established and sought-after Hickory Ridge neighborhood, this home brings immediate peace of mind brand new roof in 2025, and Zone X flood status, meaning it has never flooded and flood insurance is not required. From the street, the curb appeal is solid classic brick, blue shutters, and blooming crepe myrtles on a quiet cul-de-sac lot. Inside, cathedral ceilings with exposed beams and a classic brick fireplace set the tone. The open layout connects the kitchen, dining, and living areas in a way that just works, whether you're cooking on a Tuesday or hosting on a Saturday. The kitchen is big and practical, with plenty of cabinetry, counter space, a pantry, and a picture window above the sink looking out to the covered patio and two gorgeous mature trees. Three bedrooms, every one with a walk-in closet. A bonus room for an office or whatever you need. Refrigerator stays. Out back is a covered porch and a fenced yard that you'll actually want to spend time in. Hickory Ridge is a walkable, mature neighborhood with sidewalks, curb-and-gutter streets, and easy access to shopping, dining, schools, parks, and medical facilities. Move-in ready and priced to move quickly.
