Position your business for success with this ideally located commercial lot in one of Houma's most highly visible and heavily traveled business corridors. Conveniently situated just off Martin Luther King Boulevard on the street behind Home Depot and next door to outside and in. This property offers excellent accessibility and is surrounded by established medical offices, national retailers, restaurants, and other thriving businesses. This vacant lot presents an outstanding opportunity to build a custom facility in a growing commercial area with strong traffic and exposure. All measurements, zoning, and other information contained herein are deemed reliable but should be independently verified by the buyer.
