S Milstead is ready to turn the page into its next chapter. Sitting on a corner lot with a crisp curb appeal and in a sought after neighborhood. You'll love the renovation that was done and the immediate feeling of home sweet home as you walk in. Your living and dining area are open to each other and have natural light pouring in from every angle. Your living room has a cozy fireplace with built ins on each side and flows right into your kitchen and breakfast nook. Your kitchen has quartz counters, stainless appliances, and ample counter/storage space. Conveniently off the breakfast nook is a large laundry room and a half bath. Your bedrooms are down the hall with your primary being tucked into the back for extra privacy. Your moody primary is super spacious with a tray ceiling and leads into your primary bath with two walk in closets, two sinks, a large soaking tub, and separate shower. Your additional bedrooms are also spacious with ample storage. In the backyard is a great covered and open patio that leads to your additional green space. Plenty of parking with an oversized driveway complete with an additional covered parking area for a boat, camper, or jet skis (do people still have jet skis?). Schedule your showing today!
