Peaceful country living with room to grow! This beautiful 7.18-acre property offers a rare opportunity to enjoy the privacy and flexibility of rural living while remaining conveniently located near the amenities of Baton Rouge. Majestic live oak trees provide incredible shade and character throughout the property, creating a picturesque setting you'll love coming home to. The spacious home offers excellent bones and is ready for your personal updates, allowing you to customize it to your style. A large detached shop provides endless possibilities for hobbies, equipment storage, or a qualifying home-based business. Rural zoning offers flexibility for a variety of permitted uses and may appeal to those dreaming of a space for agricultural or recreational pursuits (buyer to verify permitted uses). The property has never flooded and is situated on one of the higher elevations along Antioch Road, offering additional peace of mind. Whether you're looking for a private homestead, a property with room for recreation, or an investment in an area with future growth potential, this unique property is full of possibilities.
