25 Acres Premier Hardwood Hunting Tract in Hinds County, Mississippi If you've been searching for a turnkey recreational property with exceptional hunting potential, this 25 acre hardwood timber tract deserves a look. Conveniently located in Hinds County on the Hinds Claiborne County line between Utica and the Natchez Trace, this property is surrounded by large private landowners, creating outstanding wildlife habitat and a truly secluded hunting experience. Covered in mature hardwood timber, this tract has a proven history of producing quality whitetail bucks. It's not uncommon to consistently see 8-10 deer per hunt, making this an exciting property for both seasoned and first-time hunters. Two established food plots are already in place, providing excellent locations to attract and hold wildlife. An added bonus is that supplemental feeding is permitted in Hinds County, giving the new owner another valuable tool for managing and enhancing the property's deer herd. Whether you're looking for a weekend hunting retreat, a recreational investment, or your own private escape in one of central Mississippi's premier hunting areas, this tract checks all the boxes. Opportunities to own quality hardwood hunting properties like this don't come around often.
