Welcome home to this charming 3-bedroom, 2-bath residence situated on a lovely lot. The living room features soaring ceilings and a bank of windows that frame views of the oversized back patio perfect for enjoying fall gatherings. The open, split floor plan is enhanced by a warm paint palette throughout. The kitchen is a standout with ample counter space, a convenient snack bar, and a fantastic pantry. The dining area includes a door leading to the back patio and yard. The primary suite offers a thoughtfully designed en-suite bathroom with vanity, separate shower, soaking tub, and a spacious walk-in closet. The garage is equipped with a mini-split unit, making it ideal for projects or additional activities. Located in an excellent school district and requiring no flood insurance, this home is a great find. Contact us today to schedule your private showing! Refrigerator, washer, dryer, and security cameras included with the lease.
