40.46 Acres of Recreational and/or Residential Property Near St. Francisville. This pristine slice of West Feliciana Parish blends the thrill of a hunting paradise with the promise of a camp or homesite. Mature hardwoods and scattered pines shade abundant wildlife, including deer and turkey. Electricity is ready and available on site. A majestic live oak - where the current owners dreamed of building - now stands as your future back yard. Minutes from the charm of St. Francisville's historic streets, antique shops, and great restaurants. Only 30 minutes to downtown Baton Rouge - far enough to breathe, close enough to work. Open areas cleared for food plots or a country garden, and plenty acreage for hunting, exploring, or just enjoying nature. The western boundary is the west branch of Grant's Bayou. There are large landowners to the north and west. Perfect amount of acreage for recreational property. Come check out this slice of beautiful West Feliciana Parish!
