PRICED BELOW APPRAISAL VALUE* This charming cinderblock home is located in the heart of downtown Houma. It was built in 1947 and has hardwood floors throughout the home. The bathroom boasts pennytile on the floor that is original to the home, even the tile around the bathtub is original. The ceilings are all tongue and groove, and all the doors have what is believed to be original hardware, pristine and intact! The kitchen was updated by a previous owner and has marble floors and is truly charming. An extremely large laundry room which could be converted into a second bathroom for an en suite has hardwood floors! Outside, is a double car carport with a covered patio and a detached shed.
