Bullion Crossing is such a convenient location, as it offers access to Airline Hwy. in a matter of seconds. This home is one you won't want to miss, boasting updated paint and new floors in each of the bedrooms. It also features an open floorplan, with the kitchen opening to dining space and living area. Highlights of the kitchen are the gas cooktop, fridge that will remain, and a spacious island offering ample counter space for food prep, etc. Both the dining and living can be oriented multiple ways, giving the new owner options on how they situate each space. Out back there's a back porch that leads to an open patio that then leads to a brick paver fire pit pad. The back porch and patio offer ample room for a backyard cookout. There is also a metal storage building in the backyard that can stay or be moved per buyer's request.
