305 Patterson St. is a cozy home nestled in a quiet neighborhood in East Houma. The kitchen is undoubtedly the highlight of the home, featuring beautiful wood countertops, custom cabinetry, tile flooring and backsplash, stainless steel appliances, a gas stove, and an abundance of natural light. The three spacious bedrooms provide the perfect canvas to make each space your own. Step outside to the backyard, where a pre-poured concrete slab is already in place ready for a custom shed, workshop, or additional outdoor living space. The subfloor in the home was replaced after Hurricane Ida throughout the home except for the kitchen.
