THIS IS ONE YOU HAVE TO SEE IN PERSON! If space, storage and room for everyone are at the top of your wish list, this incredible home in the popular Oaks neighborhood delivers in a BIG way! Completely redone and exceptionally spacious, this home offers an unbelievable amount of living space, storage and flexibility for a family to spread out while still having wonderful areas to gather and entertain. Major improvements include whole house freshly painted, a newer roof, newer HVAC systems and newer water heaters, giving buyers even more to love. From the expansive front porch and beautiful double-door entry to the oversized living areas, this home is filled with character including brick floors and accents, exposed beams, built-ins and a fireplace. The huge living room flows into a wet bar/serving area and kitchen, creating an ideal setup for entertaining. A formal dining room plus separate breakfast area provide plenty of options for everyday living and special occasions. The bedrooms are incredibly spacious with room for sitting areas, and the amount of closet and storage space throughout the home is truly remarkable. Step outside to an enormous covered patio offering another fantastic living and entertaining space. And it doesn't stop there an oversized garage, workshop/storage area, and covered RV/boat parking provide a place for just about everything
