3 Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | 1,813 Sqft

Vintage Charm Meets 1970s Retro on Nearly an Acre in Slaughter! Step into a home with personality! This one-of-a-kind 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom brick home offers 1,813 square feet of living space on a spacious 0.81-acre lot, blending timeless brick construction with a fun and distinctive Vintage Eclectic style featuring 1970s Retro and Kitsch Maximalist influences. Inside, character takes center stage. The spacious living room features a dramatic cathedral ceiling, while the primary bedroom offers its own tray ceiling and walk-in closet. The kitchen and both bathrooms are accented by granite countertops, adding a touch of modern function to the home's retro-inspired personality. Outside, this property truly shines for those who appreciate space, hobbies, gardening, and entertaining. Relax or gather with friends under the covered outdoor patio, tend to your garden in the raised garden boxes, or enjoy the property's dedicated fenced chicken yard complete with chicken coop. A large storage shed provides plenty of room for tools, equipment, lawn supplies, or all those extras that come with country living. Set on a generous lot with plenty of room to enjoy the outdoors, this property offers a rare combination of space, functionality, character, and charm. If you're looking for a home that feels anything but cookie-cutter, 113 Elmira
