This is it! Almost 5 beautiful treed acres ready for you to build your forever home with over 480 feet of road frontage on Greenwell Springs Road. This property sits high in Flood zone X so no worries about having to build up or being required to have flood insurance. Seller has cleared all underbrush and some trees as well as added a culvert and gravel drive onto the property!! Amazing new construction homes are being built all around this property so values should continue to rise as more and more families build in the area. Take a ride down scenic Greenwell Springs road and check this property out today!
