Step back in time and fall in love with the character of this charming 3-bedroom, 2-bath home built in 1963. Filled with personality and beautifully preserved vintage details, this home is a refreshing departure from today's cookie-cutter style. Beautiful period wallpaper, warm wood finishes, original cabinetry, colorful tile imported from Italy, and distinctive patterned flooring capture the charm and craftsmanship of its era. Large windows bring in plenty of natural light, while the inviting sunroom/office offers a wonderful space for relaxing, reading, or simply enjoying the view outdoors. Throughout the home, unique architectural details and nostalgic touches make every room feel special. This is a home built for entertaining with a pass through from the kitchen into the dining room. Whether you appreciate its authentic vintage style or envision blending the original character with your own updates, this home offers a wonderful opportunity to make a truly one-of-a-kind property your own. Close proximity to places of worship, schools and Lake End Park. All measurement and zones to be verified by the buyer. 1/2 bath located in garage.
