Tucked into Ferrantello Estates in Schriever, this all-brick home on slab delivers finishes you don't often find at this size. Step through the front entry into a tiled foyer that opens to soaring ceilings, rich dark wood flooring, and crown molding throughout. A decorative column frames the living area, where a full wall of custom built-in cabinetry and shelving surrounds the media wall storage and style in one. The open floor plan flows from living to dining to kitchen without a wasted step. The dining area sits under a hanging chandelier beside a window topped with a transom for extra natural light. In the kitchen, furniture-grade stained cabinetry with rope detail and carved corbels pairs with granite counters, a center island with pendant lighting, stainless appliances, and a walk-in pantry behind a frosted glass door. A dedicated laundry room with upper cabinetry sits just off the kitchen, along with direct garage access. The primary suite is split for privacy and crowned by a tray ceiling with recessed lighting. The en-suite bath offers a double granite vanity with a center storage tower, a garden tub with granite deck, separate shower, and two walk-in closets a rarity at this price point. Two additional bedrooms with crown molding, ceiling fans, and wood floors share the second full bath. Outside: architectural shingle hip roof, brick with siding accents, a two-car garage, an extended
