Welcome to 26296 Robindale Drive, where generously sized rooms and an incredible waterfront setting create a home that feels spacious, peaceful, and inviting. Outdoor living is exceptional, with a covered rear patio that extends the full length of the house and overlooks an incredible water view. Because the sun sets toward the front of the home, the backyard, patio, and waterfront remain shaded during the evening, allowing for hours of comfortable enjoyment. The peaceful feeling is unmatched you may forget you are in a neighborhood at all. Follow the yard to the private fishing pier, where you can cast a line, watch the wildlife, or sit and enjoy the tranquility of the water. The open living and dining area features soaring ceilings, abundant natural light, wood-look flooring and a fireplace. The roomy kitchen offers extensive cabinetry and counter space, a large breakfast bar, tiled backsplash, and an adjoining dining area. French doors open to a screened side patio an ideal spot for morning coffee, casual meals or relaxing outdoors. The spacious bedrooms offer plenty of room for comfortable furniture, while both bathrooms feature double vanities. The primary bath also includes a soaking tub and separate shower. In addition to all of this, there is a 26-by-13-foot workshop that provides valuable space for storage, hobbies, or projects. According to the
