Bring your VISION and make this one your own! Situated on three spacious lots within the levee protection district, this completely gutted home offers a blank canvas with incredible potential. With the interior already taken down to the studs, much of the hard work has already been started, now it's ready for someone to bring it back to life and create something truly special! Several building materials are available with this property, including bamboo flooring, sheetrock, cabinetry, and more, giving you a head start on the transformation. This home boasts standout features including two fireplaces, a 2024 fortified roof, new hardie board siding, a stunning wrap-around deck, and an inground swimming pool. With three adjacent lots stretching to LA-1, there is an impressive amount of outdoor space to complement your future plans. Whether you envision a dream home, weekend getaway, or investment property, the possibilities here are endless! Located "down the bayou" in an area known for its deep connection to the water, fishing heritage, and unique South Louisiana culture, this property offers an unique opportunity to create something truly stunning! Come with a vision! The space, character, and potential are already here!
