Come enjoy the charm and character of this unique Hammond property! This older, antique-style home has fresh paint, updated flooring and other improvements while maintaining the character that makes it special. The property features two separate living units a single unit and a larger double unit at one location, offering excellent flexibility for an investor or an owner looking for additional rental income. Interiors are bright and clean with updated flooring, neutral finishes, functional kitchens and full baths. Mature trees and the established setting add to the property's Southern charm. A great opportunity to add a versatile multi-unit property to your investment portfolio!
