$368,500

Discover a premier hunting and recreational property in the heart of Amite County, Mississippi. Spanning more than 65 acres, this turnkey tract offers the perfect combination of immediate outdoor enjoyment and long-term investment potential, with an estimated timber value exceeding $30,000 as of 2024. Unlike raw, undeveloped land, this property is fully prepared and ready for the upcoming hunting season, with proven whitetail deer and turkey populations. With excellent road frontage along both Jerusalem Road and Pipes Lane, as well as power and water available at the road, the tract provides convenient year-round access and future development opportunities. Located in a quiet and highly sought-after area near Liberty, MS, the property is easily accessible for weekend getaways from Baton Rouge, New Orleans, and surrounding communities. The land has been meticulously maintained and features: An extensive network of interior and perimeter trails wide enough for pickup truck access Potential homesite in place Multiple established food plots Custom box and ladder stands strategically positioned throughout the property A recently completed and verified professional boundary survey Gated and fenced entrances that enhance privacy and security Whether you're looking for a turn-key hunting retreat, a family
