Timeless details and thoughtful craftsmanship make this 3-bedroom, 2-bath home in Dutchtown Meadows truly stand out. Built in 2018, the home showcases rich hand-scraped wood floors, exposed wood beams, beautiful crown molding, and custom cabinetry. The dining area makes a statement with its dramatic wood-accented vaulted ceiling, adding warmth and architectural interest to the space. The open-concept living and kitchen areas are bright, inviting, and perfect for both everyday living and entertaining. The primary suite offers an added touch of convenience with direct access from the primary closet to the laundry room. Outside, the outdoor kitchen and fully fenced backyard offer even more space to relax or entertain. Beautifully maintained and filled with custom touches, this home is one you'll want to see in person.
