5 Bedrooms | 3 Bathrooms | 5,966 Sqft

A remarkable setting with room to make it your own. Tucked at the end of a cul-de-sac in well-known White Oak Landing, 18511 Bay Ridge Court sits among mature trees, sweeping lawns, and beautifully maintained grounds on approximately 2.8 acres. The property includes an approximately 6,000-square-foot main home plus a separate approximately 1,250-square-foot guest house with one bedroom, one bath, and a kitchenette. Inside the main home, a soaring living room with exposed beams, tall windows, and a brick fireplace anchors the generous floor plan. Multiple living and dining areas, an office, game room, and flexible bonus spaces offer plenty of ways to use the home. Outdoors, enjoy the landscaped paths, decorative pond, screened gathering space, and deck. A three-car garage, workshop and storage areas, and a whole-house natural gas generator add practical appeal. The home has been well-maintained and loved by current owners for 37 years and is ready for updates and renovation, offering the opportunity to create something special on an expansive, private lot.
