Welcome to 1810 Dauphine St., a beautifully maintained home that combines thoughtful design, quality upgrades, and effortless everyday living. Only two years old, this exceptional property feels fresh, refined and truly move-in ready. The thoughtfully designed 3-bedroom split floor plan offers privacy and flexibility, while a dedicated study provides the perfect space for a home office, reading room, or additional living area. Throughout the home, you'll find an impressive collection of upgrades, including a whole-home generator, custom draperies, high-end lighting, and beautifully crafted built-ins that add both function and character. Every detail has been carefully selected and exceptionally maintained. Step outside and discover a spacious patio featuring beautiful built in grill and pretty blue stone pavers, creating an inviting setting for outdoor entertaining, morning coffee, or relaxing evenings at home. Situated on a quiet street in the heart of Baton Rouge, 1810 Dauphine St. offers the rare combination of newer construction, extensive upgrades, exceptional maintenance, and comfortable, sophisticated living. This is a home you will want to see in person to appreciate all the details! Items to remain with the property include: Washer and Dryer, Picture Frame TV in Living Room, surround sound speakers, refrigerator, outdoor grill, and security cameras
