Located along highly traveled Highway 1 in Lockport, this versatile commercial property offers excellent visibility and plenty of room to bring your vision to life. Formerly operated as a veterinary clinic and hospital, the spacious building is ready for its next chapter and could accommodate a variety of business opportunities. The property features two restrooms, a durable metal roof, and a large amount of land that provides room for future expansion or additional improvements. With its high-traffic location, substantial building, and flexibility for future use, the possibilities are wide open for the next owner.
