Welcome to a beautiful, timeless brick home nestled in a well-established neighborhood, where classic charm meets everyday convenience. Situated on a spacious lot shaded by gorgeous mature oak trees, this inviting home offers character, comfort, and plenty of room for comfortable living and outdoor enjoyment. Inside, enjoy a warm and welcoming atmosphere featuring a cozy fireplace, a fully functional kitchen with an island and pantry, and ample storage throughout. Outside, the possibilities are endless with a large yard, wood privacy fence, long double driveway providing plenty of parking, and an impressive approximately 500-square-foot shop perfect for hobbies, projects, a workshop, or additional storage. Designed with comfort and peace of mind in mind, this home features a whole-house generator, security system, and insulated windows. Located in Flood Zone X, additional flood insurance is generally not required by lenders, although requirements may vary. Qualified buyers may also be eligible for 100% financing. If you're looking for a home with timeless appeal, practical features, generous outdoor space, and a little extra room for the things that matter most, this charming property is one you won't want to miss!
