Need some land but don't need a whole lot of house? This might be your spot 10766 Rocky Road gives you something that is hard to find at this price point room to move around without taking on a huge house to maintain. The house sits back from the road, so you're not right up on traffic or staring into your neighbor's window. You get your own space, your own yard, and over an acre to figure out what you want to do with it. The roof is only about 3 years old, and the current flood insurance is only $288. Schedule a tour and make an offer while you still can
